WHAT HAPPENS WHEN AMBITION MEETS CELEBRATION?

URJA 2025 becomes the answer. As the flagship cultural highlight, URJA transformed the campus into a vibrant showcase of literature, music, dance, fine arts and performance. It brought together creativity, collaboration and cultural pride, capturing the true spirit and collective energy of the institution.

At the heart of this edition lies a detailed chronicle of URJA 2025, along with other significant academic and co-curricular milestones. Readers will find coverage of career-oriented initiatives such as mock interviews, competitive events including sports tournaments and hackathons and platforms that encouraged innovation, confidence and teamwork among students.

This edition also reflects the rhythm of campus life through Diwali celebrations, youth and environmental programmes, formal events, and key examination phases. Together, these moments present a comprehensive portrait of BFC—where academic commitment and cultural vibrancy coexist, shaping well-rounded individuals and lasting memories.

Mock Interview Session – Placement Cell.

The Training and Placement Cell, in collaboration with Language Luminaries, Organized a Mock Interview Session to help students prepare for upcoming placements. This event was structured around three intensive rounds to simulate a real-world interview experience.

A demo session was first conducted by Prof. Poonam Patil from Pillai College, where students learned about interview skills and confidence building.

The core Mock Interview session concluded successfully, having been administered in three stages by the combined effort of student and alumni panelists.

° Round One (Screening) and Round Two (Personal Interview) were handled by a panel of BCA and BBA TY and SY students. They interviewed their peers, selected candidates, shared improvement points, and guided them on how to perform better in real interviews.

The student panelists included:

° BCA Student Panelists: Shavez Khan, Ahmad Kazi, Sachin Dumbre, Yash Patil, Manas Oak, Sawhard Pujari, Unnati Mahatre, Tanisha Patil, Pratik Shinde, Muskan Singh

° BBA Student Panelists: Siddhi Desai, Shrasti Mahire, Rashmi Singh, Siddiqua Zehra, Girija Sarage, Darafsha Shaikh, Omkar Chavan, Tanvi Mendhe, Malhar Same, Jhanvi Shetty

° Final Round: This decisive round was for students who were selected in both the first and second rounds. The final interview was conducted by the experienced alumni student panelists.

The alumni panelists included:

° BCA Alumni Panel: Chitrang Singh, Yashpal Choudhary, Shaikh Mohammad

° BBA Alumni Panel: Vaishnavi Mourya, Monalisa Shah, Santosh Lohar, Hitakshi Madhavi

Winner's

TY BCA: Ahmad Kazi, Yash Patil

FY BBA: Mehak Dulgach, Jugraj Singh Randhawa

FY BCA: Himani Chavan, Manish Suthar

Acknowledgements

The event was conducted under the guidance of Prof. Kavitha Selvi Thevar and Prof. Shruti Surve, whose support made the session a grand success. Special thanks to the Placement Committee department led by Head Vihaan Khurana and Co-Heads Shavez Khan and Prateek Sonawane for their efforts and coordination.

Appreciation also goes to the Language Luminaries Committee headed by Vaishali Dhatta Ghanate and Co-head by Raafia Siddiqui for their valuable contribution to the event.

The session gave students real interview experience, enhanced their communication and confidence, and helped them prepare better for future placements.

Racket Rumble 2025:

A Day of Energy, Excellence & Sportsmanship

The Sports Committee of Bakliwal Foundation College, Vashi, successfully organized its much-anticipated event “Racket Rumble 2025” on 11th October 2025. The competition began at 11:00 AM at the open arena in front of Dadar Bhavan, Palm Beach Road, Sanpada, drawing an atmosphere filled with excitement, cheers, and the spirit of healthy competition.

Under the dedicated leadership of Sports Convener Proj. Pooja Gajra, along with Committee Heads Shreya Singh and Omkar Khaire, the event was executed with remarkable coordination. Their efforts ensured smooth scheduling, fair play, and an encouraging environment for all players. This year’s Racket Rumble witnessed an impressive turnout with over 15 girls and more than 30 boys participating from various streams. The matches were packed with powerful serves, swift rallies, and moments that kept the audience glued to the court. Each player showcased determination, discipline, and true sportsmanship—values the college takes immense pride in nurturing. After a series of thrilling rounds, the winners emerged victorious with well-deserved applause. Shreya Singh (TYBACS) claimed the Girls’ Championship, while Dev Kale (TYBACS) secured the title in the Boys’ category. Their outstanding performance reflected months of dedication and rigorous practice.

“Racket Rumble 2025” was not just a competition—it was a celebration of youth energy, teamwork, and the joy of sports. The Sports Committee extends heartfelt gratitude to all participants, volunteers, supporters, and faculty members who contributed to making the event a memorable success.

Computer Association Hackathon

Igniting Innovation on Campus

The Computer Association of our college successfully organized a vibrant 24-hour Hackathon that brought together enthusiastic students from various departments. The event aimed to promote innovation, teamwork, and problem-solving skills while giving participants exposure to real-world technological challenges. It emerged as one of the most engaging academic activities of the year.

The hackathon was designed to provide a platform where students could transform creative ideas into practical solutions. Working in teams, participants collaborated, brainstormed, and applied their technical knowledge efficiently.

The program began with an inspiring inaugural session addressed by faculty mentors and industry experts, who highlighted the importance of innovation and continuous learning. After the announcement of themes, teams actively planned and developed their projects. Mentors guided participants throughout the event, while workshops on UI/UX design, cloud deployment, and debugging supported them. The atmosphere remained energetic as students coded through the night.

At the end, teams presented their projects to a judging panel of faculty members and industry professionals. Projects were evaluated on innovation, functionality, design, and impact, and winners were awarded accordingly. Overall, the hackathon boosted confidence, teamwork, and technical skills, making it a successful and enriching experience overall success.

A Festival of Colors

and Campus Harmony.

The Bakliwal Foundation College, Vashi, celebrated the joyous festival of Diwali on 17th October 2025 at the college campus. Organized jointly by the Student Council and the Cultural Committee, the celebration began at 12 PM, filling the campus with festive energy, colors, and music.

The program was guided by Faculty Convener Prof. Pooja Gajra, along with Student President Anjali Kandu, Cultural Secretary Dhruv Bhanushali, and Cultural Head Maitri Chavan, whose coordinated efforts ensured a smooth and vibrant celebration. The event opened with an engaging Rangoli Competition, which drew more than 15 talented participants. Students created stunning rangolis showcasing symmetry, creativity, and cultural motifs symbolizing light, positivity, and new beginnings. The bright designs not only beautified the campus but also reflected the festive spirit and artistic talent of the students. Following the competition, the celebrations moved to the Foyer Area, where a series of fun-filled games kept the energy high. Laughter, cheering, and friendly competition added a lively touch to the afternoon. The excitement continued with a DJ Party, which quickly became the highlight of the event. Students gathered to dance, celebrate, and enjoy the festive music, creating memorable moments with friends and faculty.

The Diwali Celebration 2025 successfully brought together tradition, creativity, and joy. It strengthened the sense of campus unity and offered students a refreshing break filled with happiness and cultural pride. The Student Council and Cultural Committee extend heartfelt gratitude to all participants and faculty for making the event delightful and memorable success.

Bhaubij: A Bond Beyond Words

Bhaubij, also known as Bhai Dooj, is a beautiful festival that celebrates the special bond between brothers and sisters. Celebrated two days after Diwali, this festival reflects love, care, and lifelong promises between siblings.

On this day, sisters perform aarti, apply a tilak on their brothers' foreheads, and pray for their long life and happiness. In return, brothers promise to protect and support their sisters and often give gifts as a token of love. Families come together, share meals, and relive childhood memories.

Bhaubij reminds us that the bond between siblings is built on trust, affection, and emotional support. It is not just a ritual but a heartfelt celebration of relationships that last a lifetime.

गुरु नानक जयंती

Guru Nanak Jayanti is one of the most important festivals in India, celebrated on 5 Nov, to mark the birth anniversary of Guru Nanak Dev Ji, the founder of Sikhism. His teachings emphasized truth, equality, compassion, selfless service, and devotion to one God.

On this day, devotees participate in prayers, kirtans, Nagar Kirtans, and visit Gurudwaras to seek blessings. The tradition of Langar (community kitchen) reflects Guru Nanak Dev Ji's belief in equality, where people from all backgrounds sit together and share meals.

Guru Nanak Jayanti inspires us to live a life of kindness, humility, and service to humanity, reminding us that true spirituality lies in helping others and living honestly.

GRAND BANNER REVEAL CEREMONY OF URJA

The spirit of celebration and excitement filled the campus as URJA, the much-awaited grand event, was officially unveiled with a vibrant banner reveal ceremony held at the front entrance of the URJA venue. The moment marked the powerful beginning of an event that symbolizes energy, creativity, and unity.

The ceremony was graced by the esteemed presence of Seema Bakliwal Ma'am, Founder and CEO, CA Samyak Bakliwal Sir, our respected Principal Sir, along with faculty members and enthusiastic students. Their presence added dignity and inspiration to the occasion, making it truly memorable.

As the banner was revealed, the atmosphere resonated with applause, smiles, and excitement. Students gathered with great enthusiasm, dressed in beautiful traditional attire, reflecting the rich cultural values and vibrant spirit of URJA.

The colorful outfits and joyful expressions created a visually stunning and lively environment.

The event not only marked the announcement of URJA but also showcased the collective energy and dedication of the entire college community. The encouragement and motivating words from the dignitaries inspired students to actively participate and give their best in the upcoming events.

The banner reveal ceremony successfully set the tone for URJA, promising days filled with enthusiasm, creativity, teamwork, and unforgettable memories. With such an energetic beginning, URJA is sure to be a grand celebration of talent, tradition, and togetherness.

Talent and Creativity Take Center Stage at Bakliwal Foundation

November 11th marked a day of extraordinary cultural vibrance at the Bakliwal Foundation, as the venue transformed into a bustling hub of artistry for the highly anticipated "Sahitya Mehfil." The event was far more than a simple gathering; it was a fierce yet spirited battleground of creativity, where competitive groups—including the energetic Jay Veeru, the dynamic Pappu Ki Paltan, and the spirited Majnu Bhai Mandali—vied for glory across a spectrum of artistic disciplines.

The atmosphere was electric from the start, particularly during the Performing Arts segment, which served as the heartbeat of the day. The "Rap e Kalam" competition brought the crowd to its feet, with Krishna from team Jay Veeru delivering a powerhouse performance of lyrical dexterity to clinch the title, narrowly edging out the talented Runner-up, Abita Khan. The emotional resonance of the Open Mic event was equally palpable; Rehan Shekhar of Majnu Bhai Mandali took the top honor with a compelling performance, while Omki Karande and Sahil Pimparkar impressed the judges to secure the runner-up positions.

The stage continued to sizzle as the focus shifted to movement and melody. In the Solo Dance category, Siddhesh Narvekar (Jay Veeru) mesmerized the audience with fluid moves and stage presence to take the win. Meanwhile, the air was filled with melody during the Solo Singing competition, where Piyush Meshram (Pappu Ki Paltan) showcased vocal excellence to emerge victorious.

Beyond the stage, the event celebrated the quiet intensity of the written word and the visual splendor of fine arts.

The literary segment saw Tanisha Singh weave magic to win the Story Writing competition, while Bilal Ansari demonstrated poetic brilliance to triumph in "Verses ka Musharraf." The visual arts corner was a riot of color and precision. Riya Kamble showcased whimsical creativity to win the Doodle Art prize, while Mansi Dhepe displayed intricate traditional skills to win the Mehendi category.

Perhaps the most avant-garde win went to Ali Hasan Shaikh, who took home the prize for Face Fusion, turning the human canvas into a work of art. The Sahitya Mehfil was a resounding success, proving that when talent meets opportunity, the result is nothing short of spectacular.

UNDER 25 SUMMIT:

A Vibrant Celebration of Talent and Youth Culture at Bakliwal Foundation College.

On 10th November 2025, the Cultural Committee of Bakliwal Foundation College, Vashi, hosted an exciting and spirited event in collaboration with the popular Under 25 Club. Beginning at 10:00 AM in the college auditorium, the program brought together music, comedy, creativity, and a refreshing dose of youth inspiration, making it one of the most memorable events of the semester.

The event featured three dynamic personalities who left the audience thoroughly entertained and deeply inspired. Musician Kartik Sachdeva set the tone for the day with his soulful voice and energetic performance. His songs filled the auditorium with enthusiasm, and students instantly connected with his rhythm and charm. The lively musical environment created a beautiful sense of togetherness. The atmosphere shifted to laughter as comedian Jitesh Vasani took the stage. His witty observations, relatable college anecdotes, and effortless humor kept the students in constant laughter. His presence added a cheerful and light-hearted touch to the celebration. Adding further depth to the event, Sakshi Deshmukh shared her journey as a young creator, inspiring students with her thoughts on confidence, creativity, and embracing opportunities in the digital era.

Her heartfelt interaction encouraged the audience to believe in their potential and chase their dreams fearlessly. Towards the end, all three guests were recognized by the college management with a token of appreciation, acknowledging their contribution to making the event special. The guests also enjoyed a delightful college tour, interacting warmly with students and appreciating the campus culture.

The entire auditorium buzzed with excitement, applause, and genuine joy. The collaboration between Under 25 and Bakliwal Foundation College proved to be a resounding success, offering students an unforgettable blend of entertainment, motivation, and youthful celebration.

URJA 2025:

FROM RETRO ROOTS TO RIZZ REVOLUTION

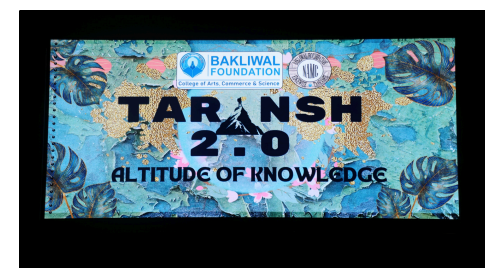

On 12th November 2025, Bakliwal Foundation College transformed into a vibrant arena of creativity, rhythm, and celebration as URJA 2025 unfolded in all its glory. With the captivating theme “Retro to Rizz,” the event seamlessly bridged the charm of timeless classics with the confidence of modern expression. Spanning over three and a half hours, URJA 2025 emerged as a grand platform where students celebrated talent, culture, and unity through dance, drama, fashion, and music.

A Graceful Beginning

The celebration began sharply at 3:00 PM, with anchors Anjali and Niraj setting the tone by introducing the audience to the event’s unique theme. The fest was inaugurated with a traditional Lamp Lighting Ceremony, graced by eminent dignitaries including Founder & Trustee C.A. Sanjay Bakliwal, Executive President Seema Bakliwal, C.A. Naman Bakliwal, C.A. Mehak Bakliwal, C.A. Samyak Bakliwal, and Principal Dr. Sharad Kumar Shah.

In his inspiring address, Dr. Sharad Kumar Shah encouraged students to embrace creativity alongside academic excellence, igniting enthusiasm across the campus.

Words that Inspired

Midway through the fest, C.A. Sanjay Bakliwal delivered a deeply motivational speech, urging students to dream big, remain disciplined, and believe in their unique potential.

His words resonated strongly with the young audience and added purpose to the celebration.

Cultural Performances that Set the Stage on Fire

The cultural journey commenced with a serene Ganesh Vandana by Gargi and Varija, invoking positivity and blessings.

The stage soon witnessed a burst of energy with electrifying performances. A powerful group dance by Piyanshu Tiwari and the “Radhe Rockstars”, followed by Archana Singh’s expressive classical fusion solo, captivated the audience. The drama performance by Chetana College’s “Jai Veeru” team delivered strong emotions and humor, while the intercollegiate energy dance by Shoeb, Rohit, and Khushi kept the excitement soaring.

Fashion Meets Flair: Retro to Rizz on the Ramp

The fashion segments truly embodied the theme of the fest.

“Clothier Heaven” showcased elegance, while the retro ramp walk by Rohit and team revived old-school charm with a modern twist. The much-anticipated “Gangubai” intercollegiate round by Vidya Vikas College, led by Pragati and her team, emerged as a show-stopper with its powerful storytelling and impactful styling. The energetic Majnu Bhai Mandali dominated the stage with their vibrant fashion acts and high-energy group dance performances, making them one of the most memorable teams of the evening.

A Memorable Finale

The event concluded with a sincere Vote of Thanks, acknowledging the guidance of dignitaries, judges, sponsors, and the dedicated efforts of Cultural Coordinator Prof. Pooja Gajra. The celebrations ended on a patriotic note with the National Anthem, marking the successful completion of URJA 2025—a festival that truly celebrated creativity, connection, and cultural brilliance.

O Janeja...

As the celebrations continued, URJA 2025 reached its most magical and emotionally powerful moment with the special screening and interactive session of the musical project “O Janeja.” This segment elevated the fest from a cultural celebration to an unforgettable artistic experience.

Directed by the celebraty Sandip Soparrkar, O Janeja featured stellar performances by Freddy Daruwala and Krishna Gautam, enriched by the soulful voice of Amitabh Narayan and heartfelt lyrics by Pawan Mishra. The project beautifully blended music, dance, and storytelling, creating an emotional connection that resonated deeply with the audience.

What made this segment truly exceptional was the live interaction session with the artists. They shared their journeys through the world of cinema and performing arts—speaking candidly about passion, perseverance, discipline, and self-belief. Their experiences inspired students to chase their dreams fearlessly and view creativity as a powerful form of expression.

As the beats grew louder and spirits soared, students were invited onto the stage, transforming the venue into a vibrant dance floor. The air was filled with laughter, rhythm, and collective joy as students danced alongside the artists, breaking all barriers between performers and audience.

O Janeja emerged as the heart and soul of URJA 2025, leaving behind not just memories, but motivation, inspiration, and a renewed love for art.

A Season of Exams and Unshakeable Resilience-

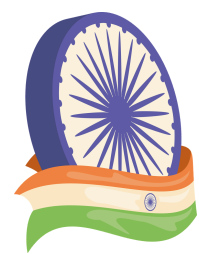

From 28th–31st October, Bakliwal Foundation College began its examination season with the Internal Exams, setting the academic tone for the semester. Students approached these exams with sincerity, using them as a checkpoint to assess their preparation. Soon after, the Re-Examinations from 1st–3rd November provided a second chance to those who missed their earlier papers due to unavoidable circumstances. This thoughtful initiative reflected the college's commitment to fairness and academic support, reminding students that setbacks do not define their journey. The most demanding phase arrived with the University Examinations held from 18th November to 6th December. However, this period brought unexpected challenges as several exams were postponed due to state elections. The sudden changes created uncertainty among students—study schedules were disrupted, anxiety increased, and many found it difficult to maintain their momentum. Yet, despite these hurdles, students displayed exceptional patience, discipline, and adaptability.

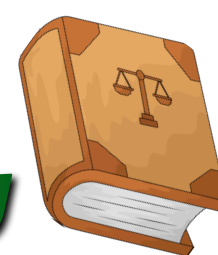

Together, these three exam phases formed not just a test of knowledge but a true test of resilience. The students of Bakliwal Foundation College proved that even in the face of shifting timetables and unexpected disruptions, their determination remains unwavering. This examination season stands as a reminder that strength is built not only through learning, but through enduring challenges with courage and clarity.

26th November: Constitution Day

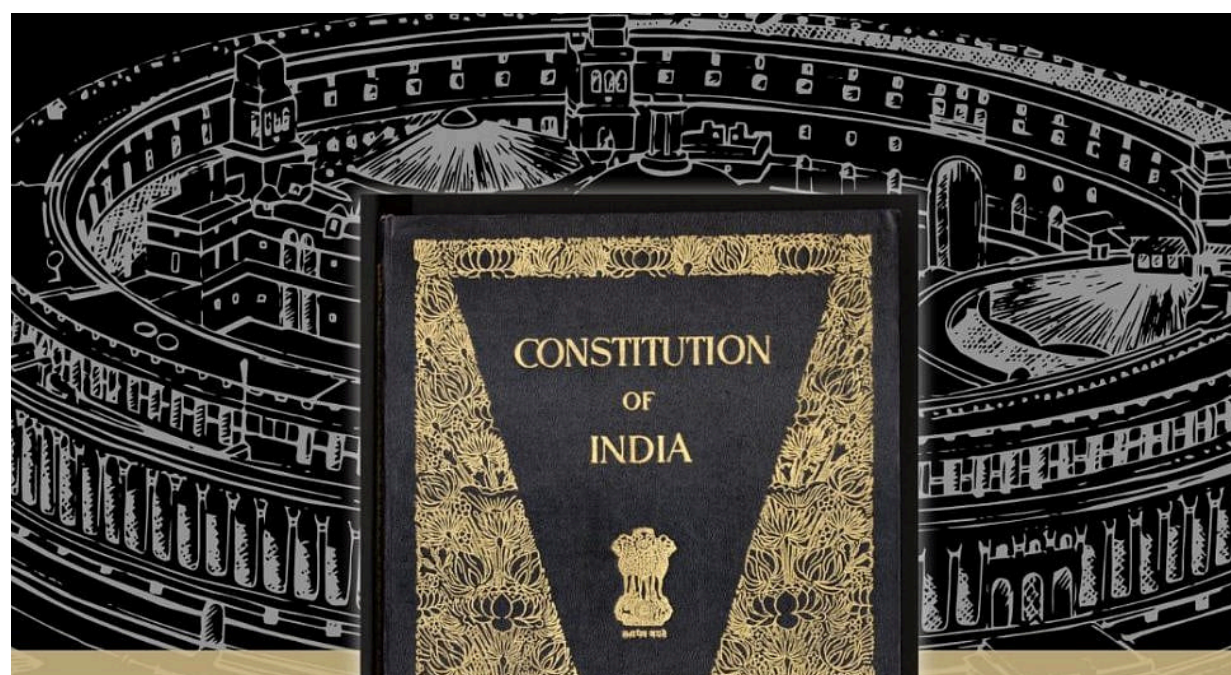

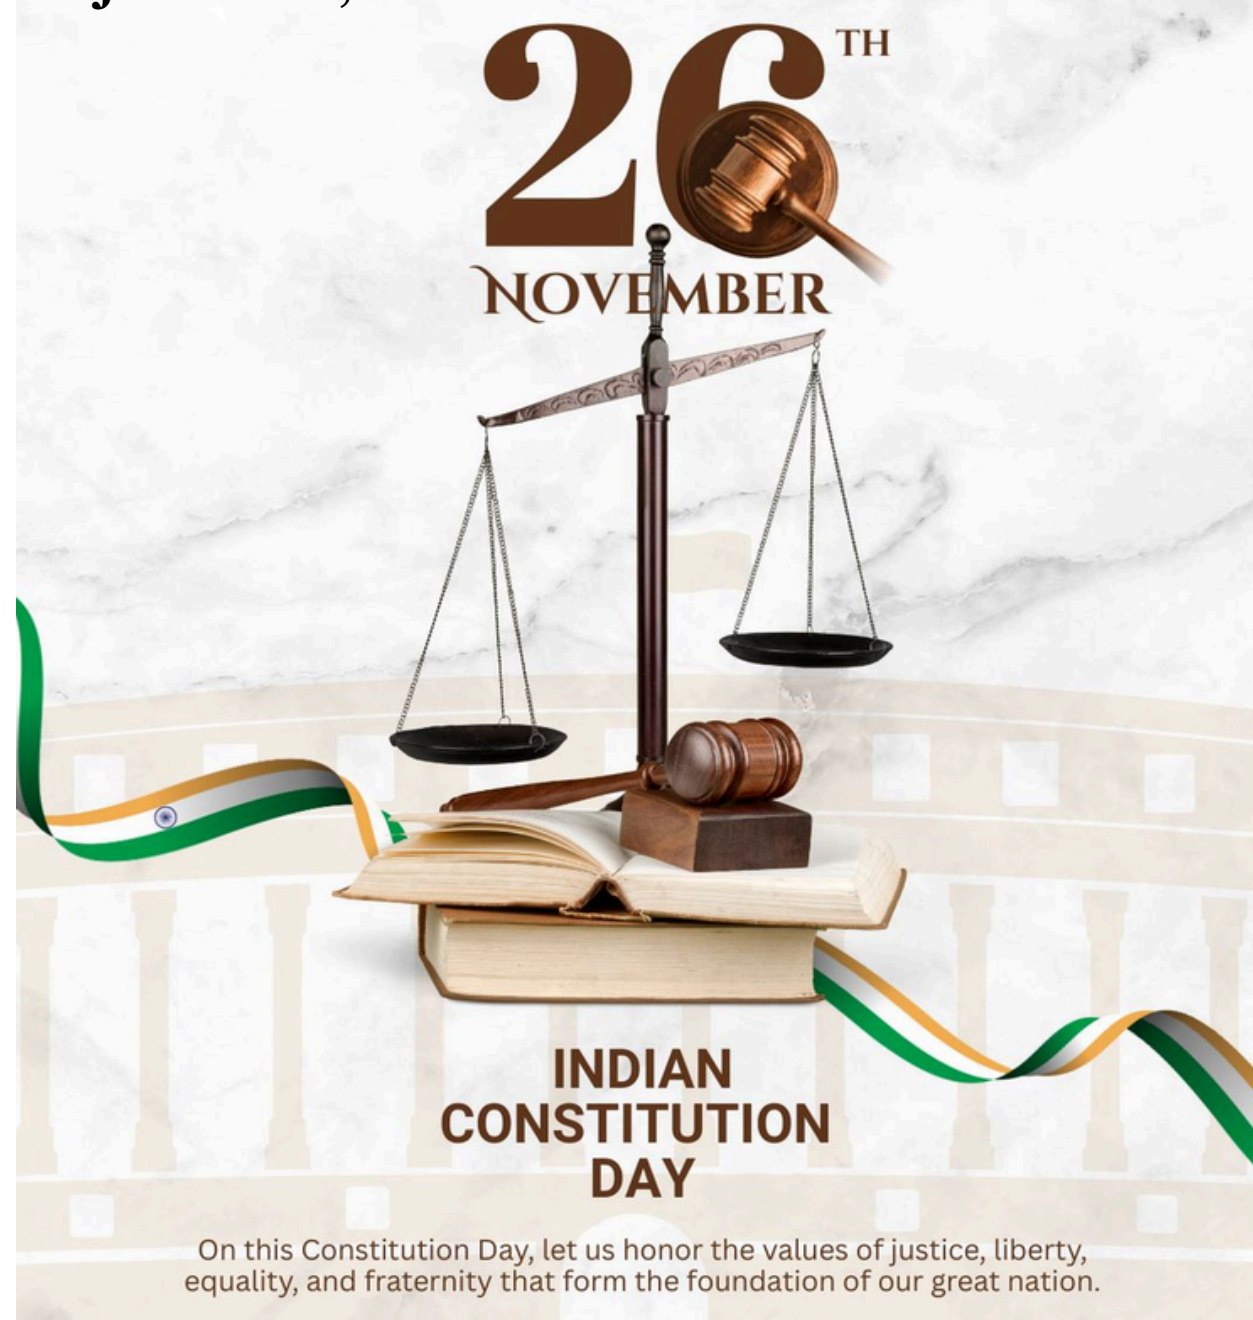

– Remembering Dr. B. R. Ambedkar

26th November is observed as Constitution Day of India, also known as Samvidhan Divas, to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution in 1949. This day holds special significance as it honours Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar, the Chairman of the Drafting Committee and the chief architect of the Indian Constitution.

Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar's vision laid the foundation for a democratic, inclusive, and just society. The Constitution he helped frame guarantees fundamental rights, equality, liberty, and dignity to every citizen, particularly empowering the marginalized and ensuring social justice. His commitment to education, rational thinking, and constitutional morality continues to guide the nation.

Observing Constitution Day serves as a reminder of our duties as citizens—to uphold constitutional values, respect diversity, and strengthen democratic institutions. It is a day of reflection and reaffirmation of the ideals of justice, equality, and fraternity envisioned by Dr. Ambedkar. Remembering him on this occasion inspires us to contribute responsibly towards building a stronger and more equitable India.

Yuva Niti 2025

Bakliwal Foundation College, Vashi, hosted a thought-provoking and energizing event titled “Yuva Niti 2025” on 14th November 2025 at the college auditorium. Organized collaboratively by the Department of Arts and Green Club, in association with Yuva Niti Maharashtra, the program aimed to deepen students’ understanding of public policy, youth leadership, and civic participation.

The session began at 11:00 AM and witnessed an enthusiastic turnout of students eager to learn about governance and policy-making. The highlight of the event was a dynamic Panel Discussion on “Youth, Policy & Civic Leadership.” The panel featured eminent speakers—Ms. Shraddha Singh, Mr. Vinayak Salunkhe, Mr. Mayuresh Netkar, and Mr. Vivek Sonawane—who brought diverse expertise from the fields of policy development, social work, environmental action, and youth governance. The session was effectively moderated by Mr. Ayuf Akula, ensuring an engaging and insightful flow of ideas. Students participated actively, raising meaningful questions on leadership opportunities, environmental challenges, government policies, and career pathways in public administration. Their curiosity and engagement reflected a growing interest in understanding India’s civic framework. A major point of excitement was the announcement that two students would be selected for a special policy-making training program, offering exposure from Zilla Parishad processes to an opportunity to meet the Chief Minister of Maharashtra. With registrations open for the first 60 students, the announcement generated high motivation among attendees. The Green Club added an environmental lens to the program, highlighting sustainability within governance.

Yuva Niti 2025 concluded on an inspiring note, successfully encouraging students to step forward as informed, responsible, and confident future leaders.

Bakliwal Foundation College Joins the Go Flow Run

On 7th December 2025, the Student Council of Bakliwal Foundation College, Vashi, proudly participated in the much-celebrated Go Flow Run held at Worli, Mumbai, from 6:00 AM to 9:00 AM. The initiative brought together fitness, social awareness, and youth enthusiasm in a powerful way. Under the guidance of Convener Prof. Pooja Gajra, the college team showcased unity, energy, and commitment to meaningful causes.

More than 35 students from the college took part in the marathon, receiving special event T-shirts, medals, and goodie bags that added to their excitement. The vibrant morning atmosphere was filled with music, cheer, and motivational spirit as participants gathered to run not just for fitness, but for a purpose. The Go Flow Run, known for its strong social message, focused on raising awareness about menstrual hygiene and amplifying the voices of women. The marathon encouraged participants to break stigmas, advocate for better access to hygiene facilities, and promote dignity and health for women across communities. The students proudly ran with this message, making the event both impactful and memorable. The day became even more special as students got the chance to meet inspiring personalities present at the event. Neha Dhupia, Director of the Go Flow Run, interacted warmly with the participants. Students also had the exciting opportunity to meet singer Neeti Mohan, actor Varun Sood, and businesswoman Ananya Birla, each of whom added motivation and charm to the morning.

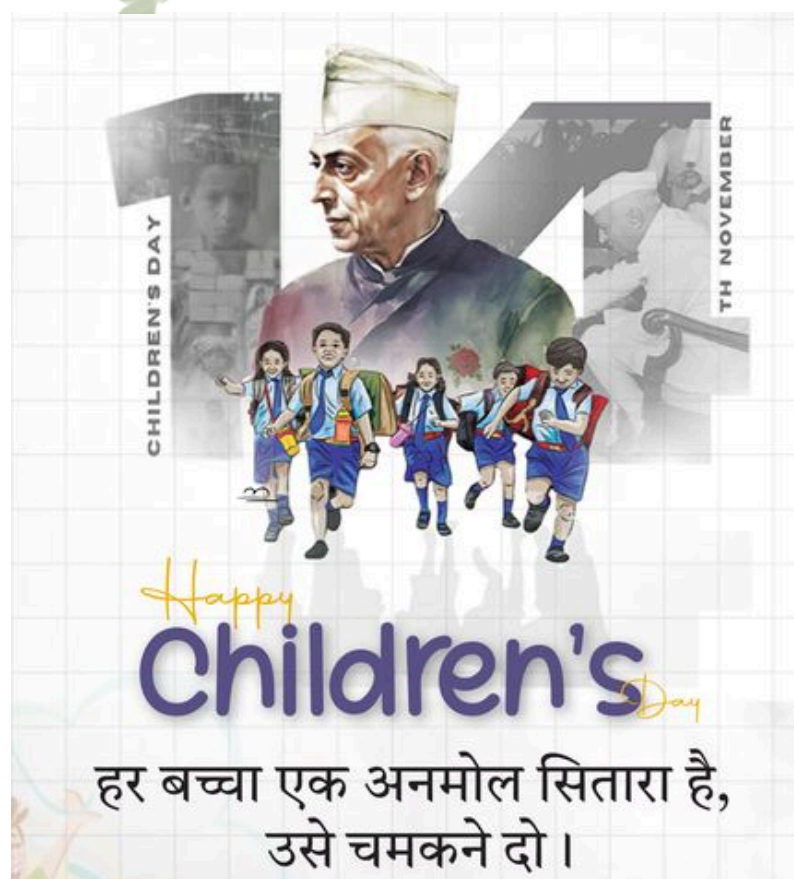

The Go Flow Run experience was more than a marathon—it was a celebration of strength, awareness, youth participation, and social responsibility. For the students of Bakliwal Foundation College, it was a morning filled with pride, purpose, and unforgettable memories.

WHERE DREAMS BEGIN: CHILDREN'S DAY

Children's Day is celebrated in India on 14th November, marking the birth anniversary of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, fondly known as Chacha Nehru. He believed that children are the foundation of a strong and progressive nation and should grow up in a safe, happy, and nurturing environment.

This day reminds us of the importance of childhood, education, creativity, and care.

Children bring innocence, curiosity, and hope into the world, and it is our responsibility to protect their rights and support their dreams. Schools and institutions celebrate this day with cultural activities, fun events, and special programs to make children feel valued and loved.

Children's Day is not just a celebration—it is a reminder to build a future where every child gets equal opportunities to learn, grow, and shine.

-SAKSHI CHOUDHARI, TYBBA

Approaching On The Horizon

Horizon of Opportunities: A Season of Learning and Celebration

The campus is buzzing with anticipation as we gear up for a dynamic lineup of upcoming events designed to blend creativity, practical exposure, and professional insight.

First, the spotlight turns to Aakrid, our much-awaited flagship event. More than just a fest, Aakrid promises to be a vibrant showcase of talent and spirit, offering a platform for students to unleash their creativity and compete with passion.

Broadening our academic horizons, the upcoming Industrial Visit is set to bridge the gap between classroom theory and real-world application. This hands-on experience will provide crucial insights into operational workflows and industry standards.

Finally, the intellectual highlight of the season arrives with Innoventure and the HR Summit. This dual-focus event aims to ignite the entrepreneurial spark in students while offering deep dives into the evolving landscape of human resources and business leadership.

Together, these events mark a period of holistic growth. We encourage every student to participate, network, and make the most of this exciting season
