New perspective in the becoming

A poetic perspective life at bakliwal - 2026-27 and to the new batch

Find your own story

You will came with books, with dreams in our eyes,
With curious hearts and questions wise.
The corridors echoed with laughter and cheer,
And slowly, this place became something dear.

Some days will be hectic, some days bright,
Some lessons will come long after twilight.
LYou will stumble, learn and find your way,
And make a thousand memories along the way.

*LFrom classrooms to stages, from debates to song,
With friends beside you, you will journey along.
Every event, every smile, every little cheer,
Became a chapter you 'll treasure for years.

For college is more than a timetable or degree,
It is the person we slowly come to be.
And when someday these campus doors you leave,
It is these little moments youll carry up our sleeve.

So let EDGEWIZE tell the stories you will create and as a community we will make,
Let the newspaper capture each memory we take.
Let Campus Charcha keep conversations alive,
And let the spirit of Bakliwal forever thrive.

As Convenor, NAMC, I look forward to another year of stories waiting to be told, voices waiting to be heard and memories waiting to be preserved.

Because a campus lives twice—once in the moment, and once in the stories we choose to remember.
And NAMC is here to make sure our stories are never forgotten.
